This modern villa is located in the exclusive Racó Galeno , a residence that combines architecture with nature and finishes with wood, concrete and stone, creating a beautiful architectural design.Nature is introduced into the house through the large windows that visually double the spaces and, together with the light of the Mediterranean Sea as a great ally, manage to create a perfect dialogue between the interior and exterior.The interior of the villa is full of details, decorative elements and panelling that create different atmospheres. Lighting that brings warmth to the house, rooms with double height ceilings, glass walls that come together on one side and connect the terraces and the living room; all exclusive details that create a unique villa.The villa has three bedrooms with en-suite bedrooms, as well as an impressive master bedroom with an en-suite bathroom whose protagonist is an incredible bathtub overlooking the sea. There is a large open living room that opens onto the kitchen and dining room, a second - more enclosed - living room, several bathrooms and free spaces suitable for installing a gym, an office, or - why not - a cinema room.The garden is of the Mediterran...
